MAKIN' RAIDERS

Where y'at, Raiders!

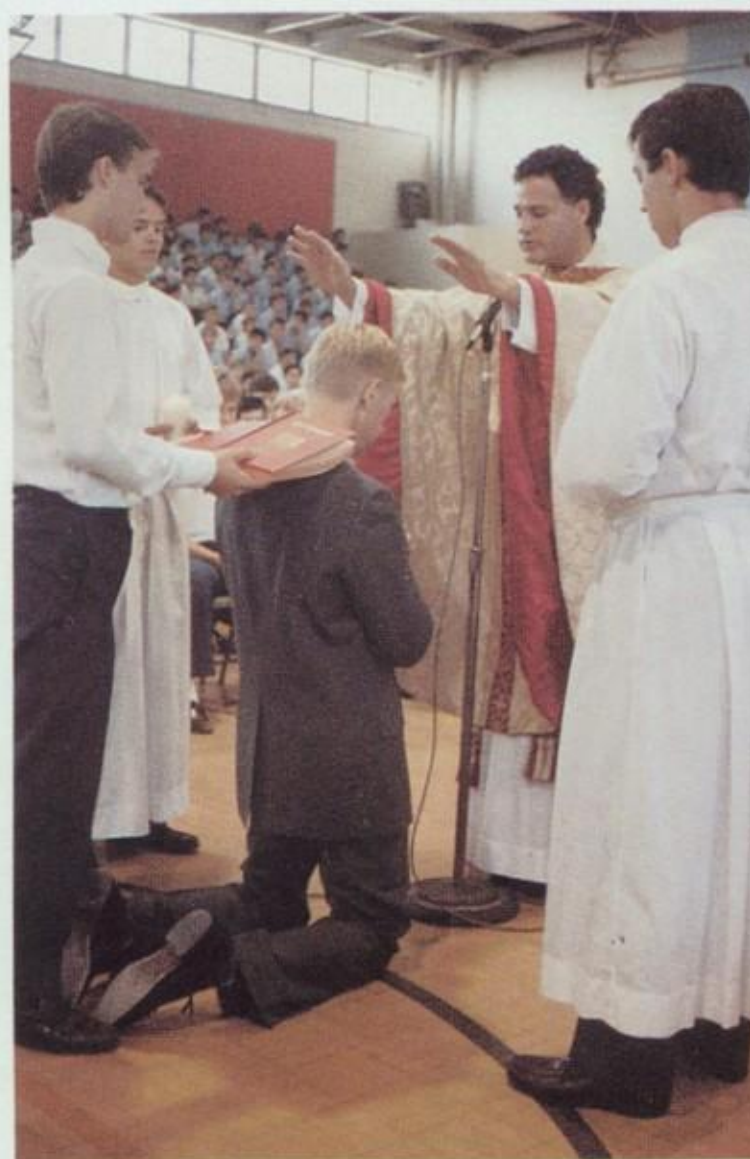

Way down yonder in our neck of the woods, good cooking is a centuries-old tradition. And as any good New Orleans chef knows, whether he's aiming at something hot and Spanish or spicy and Cajun, the completed meal depends largely on its ingredients: the better the fixin's, the better the feast. So a lot of time is spent finding just the right bits and pieces that add up to a delicious meal — a culinary hunt that the Crescent City calls "Makin' groceries".

At Rummel this tradition of careful preparation leading to a fine end product is also alive and thriving. Curriculum, facilities, faculty, staff, and student involvement in activities both in and out of school are all ingredients that contribute to our quality finished product — the Rummel graduate.

In short, as this volume will show, we're "Makin' Raiders, Rummel Style!"

RUMMEL STYLE

This class has it all: musicians, actors, athletes, scholars, and young men of strong moral conviction. In the long years ahead it shall be my joy to watch these students of mine grow, learn, and become more human.

— Mr. Musselwhite

This year's Seniors are a mixed bag. However, I feel that, as a group, they have learned to balance fun time with work time. My students, as well as my Genesian Players, procrastinate just long enough to get to a near hazardous situation, then they 'straighten up and fly right.' These Seniors are also some of the most courteous people I've taught in some time.

Back To School

The '87 - '88 edition of "Makin' Raiders" began as always with several hectic but enjoyable activities. Orientation for new students was followed by three days of book distribution, the Back-to-School Dance in the gym, and the first community mass of the year. Along with the brand-new year came a brand-new principal, as ex-English Department Chairperson, Brother Richard Kovatch, assumed his duties as Rummel's chief administrator.

- E. The lines at Book Distribution aren't usually long, but they are steady.
- F. Doug Aleman is measured for his P. E. uniform.
- G. John Cognevich helps at the checkout table.
- H. Eighth grader Doug Massaheads for his first class at Rummel.
- I. Seniors Dennis Delhom and Gilly Delormier wait for the Back-to School Mass to start.

ORIENTATION

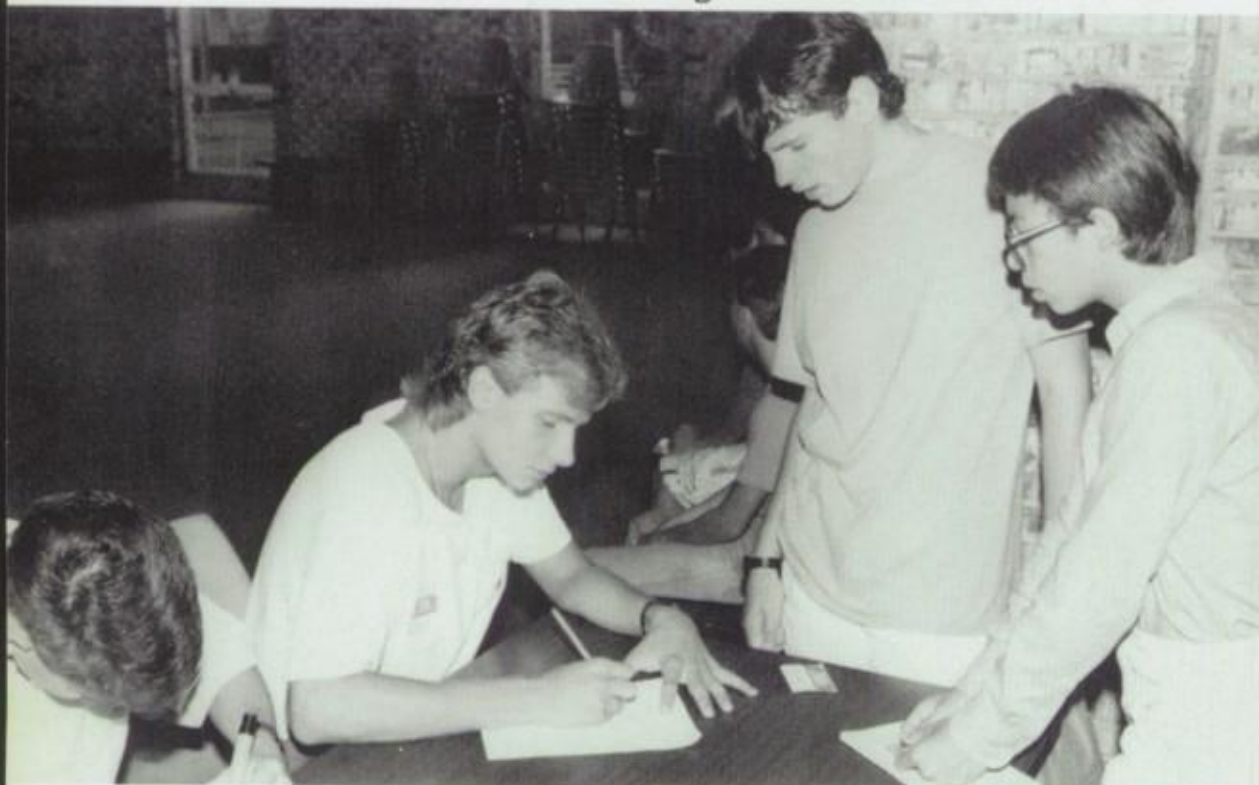

Headed by the Big Brothers and moderator Mr. Clyde Gravois, the eighth and ninth graders' orientation begins the process of Makin' Raiders, Rummel Style.

Incoming Rummel students are introduced to the Raider community and then become a part of it. They listen to talks and watch skits on high school life. By the end of the day, the new Raiders have toured the campus and learned the fight song and alma mater and have tasted the first ingredients in the Raider A cookbook.

(Rufus Raider was named after Rufus' father, Rummel's first District Champion athlete.) E. Br. Rich addresses the group. F. Eric Kuntz lends his artistic talent. G. Senior Ned Dabouval leads this group of painters. H. Brett Weddington, Rufus Cressend, Daarren Lanlois, Andy Johnson and Ronnie Vitellaro. I. Corey Lobell and Fred Westereng.

Tuesday nights during football season become Poster Nights, as droves of eighth and ninth graders gather at school and bend their creative talents to produce vivid visualizations of themes such as "Tackle the Tornadoes" and "Shut Down Shaw." Aimed at arousing enthusiasm and pride, these posters are then displayed in the Raider Room and awarded ribbons for first, second, and third place.

1987 RAIDER HOMECOMING COURT

Raiders,
you're the best!
Love,
Stacy

“Stop, look, and listen” was the order of the day when, in early September, the nominees for the Homecoming court were escorted around the campus by representatives of the nominating organizations. The ladies enjoyed a pre-election luncheon, during which they had the opportunity to meet the student body.

Later that week, Stacy Owens was elected queen and Paige Webber, first maid. Other members of the court were Jenny Guarisco, Tara Guidry, Michelle Rowell, Paige Poche, Randi Roberts, Christine Turk, Sabrina Seghers, and Kendra Culotta.

On October 23, the court was presented at the Homecoming pep rally, where Queen Stacy Owens continued the tradition of lighting the Double R's. The rally was followed by a rousing soc hop in the gym.

The next evening at the Homecoming game, alumni celebrating their five-year reunion escorted the young ladies during the halftime celebration, during which Stacy was officially crowned by last year's queen Erin Jiminez.

Homecoming activities continued when the court was presented to the Parent-Boosters and were brought to a fitting end at the Semi-formal dance on December 5.

For me, being crowned at the football game was the most exciting part of Homecoming. I am very proud to have been selected as Homecoming Queen and it was an experience I will never forget.

RING DAY

Even though high school memories are sure to last forever, seniors take one thing with them that serves as a tangible reminder — the senior ring. At the end of September, the class of 1988 gathered at St. Rita's Church for the ring ceremony to celebrate this reminder. Faculty member and Rummel grad Mr. Don Dessauer was guest speaker, comparing his high school ring and experiences to those of the present seniors. That night, the traditional Ring Dance concluded the festivities as the band Topcats entertained at the Magnolia Plantation.

OPEN HOUSE

On November 5, two thousand seventh and eighth graders and their parents turned out for Rummel's annual Open House, organized by Mr. Stanton and Mr. Serio. The prospective students were introduced to the meaning of Raider Pride, as seen in the campus, the curriculum, the students and the faculty. After browsing through the gym to visit presentations by extracurriculars, the visitors moved to the Raider Room or the cafeteria to see a slide show and hear introductory speeches. Next, in groups guided by faculty members and students, the guests toured the school and ended the evening with refreshments in the cafeteria.

OPERATION ODDBALL

As always, the annual Operation Oddball displayed not only Raiders' imagination but also their capacity for humor and wackiness. Many students took advantage of the Student Council-sponsored event to shed their uniforms and don the zaniest outfits they could concoct. Individual award honors went to David Scheurer ("Crayfish in Boiler"), Al LeBlanc ("Fletch"), and Scott Dauenhauer ("The Bird"). The "Mighty Midgets", portrayed by Craig Nunemacher and Glenn Ruppert copped top honors in the group competition, followed by "The Noids" and "ZZ Top."

PEP RALLIES

Raider Pride is seldom more vocally apparent than it is at pep rallies. Measuring spirit in terms of volume, the student body meets weekly in the gym during football season to rattle the rafters in support of the Raider squad. These tests of lung power are planned by the Student Council and led by the cheerleaders, band, and speakers. Pep rallies continue to spark spirit, although less frequently, throughout the sports year.

H DANCES

Six times during the year, the Rummel gym is filled with wall to wall action and music at the well attended gym dances. Sponsored by the Student Council, the Raiders get the chance to "pass a good time" while dancing to music supplied by disc jockeys. Beginning with the Back-to-School Dance in September and ending with the Rummel Day Dance, the dances supply loads of fun for students of all ages.

SENIOR TRIP

While the rest of us were preparing to down as much turkey and cranberry sauce as possible, forty-two seniors were basking in the sun on the annual Senior Trip. Accompanied by Mrs. Mire, Mr. Lang, Mr. Seghers, and their spouses, the travelers cruised on the Canada Star to Key West, Playa del Carmen, and Cozumel where they sampled the climate and the cuisine of the tropics.

1. Richie Parker, Barry David, Fred Cunningham and Mike Barnes race to get to the ship in Cozumel before the gangplank goes up.

LUNCH

After half the day's classes have passed, a Raider may begin to feel the dreadful pains of hunger. Luckily, relief is around the corner as everyone's most anticipated class arrives: lunch! After "recharging their batteries" with a cafeteria feast, the students are at liberty to do a number of things. Such as, relax in the Raider Room, study in the library, speak to God in the new prayer room, or take a visit to either the Math, English, or Business labs. Whatever a student may choose to do on his break, all will agree that lunch is their favorite "subject."

F. One of the more anticipated lunchtimes is the visit of perspective Homecoming Court Members. Mike Warr, Kenny Knecht, Mark Bergeron, Neal Bienvenu (front) and Mehul Sheth (front) get to know some of the candidates.

G. Darren Dausat, Steve Bordelon, Kevin Koster and Tommy Aymami chow down.

TURKEY BOWL

A new tradition was introduced to the Raider community in November, as the junior high home-rooms squared off in a week-long touch football tournament. Mr. Barton's homeroom 64 took the first place medals by defeating Mr. Martin's homeroom 77. The champs then met a seasoned "all star" faculty team in the first annual "Turkey Bowl" on November 20. The aging but determined pros won the contest 28 - 6, and over $90.00 was raised for the Key Club through ticket sales.

BLOOD DRIVE

The Raider community once again proved its generosity and caring when, in both the fall and the spring, students and faculty turned out for the annual blood drive. The event is sponsored by the Key Club and conducted by the Southeast Louisiana Blood Bank, and this year over 150 Raiders literally gave of themselves to help others.

INTRAMURAL^C VOLLEYBALL

The annual "Volleyball Wars" raged again during the month of October in the three day tournament sponsored by the Student Council and moderated by Mr. Irvin Barousse. "Pastor-ek's Penguins" of homeroom 26B defeated 64A's "Studs-R-Us" for the junior division title, and "Tom's Terrors" of 44C upset the seniors of "The Homeroom 51 Volleyball Warrior Gods" to take senior division honors.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Homeroom competition heated up in March, as the intramural basketball tournament filled the gym with brilliant dribbling, awesome hook shots, and breathtaking defense. Planned and moderated by Mr. Arthur Richard and the Student Council, the tourney ended with victories by Coach Martin's homeroom 25 on the junior level and Mr. Musselwhite's homeroom 42 on the senior level.

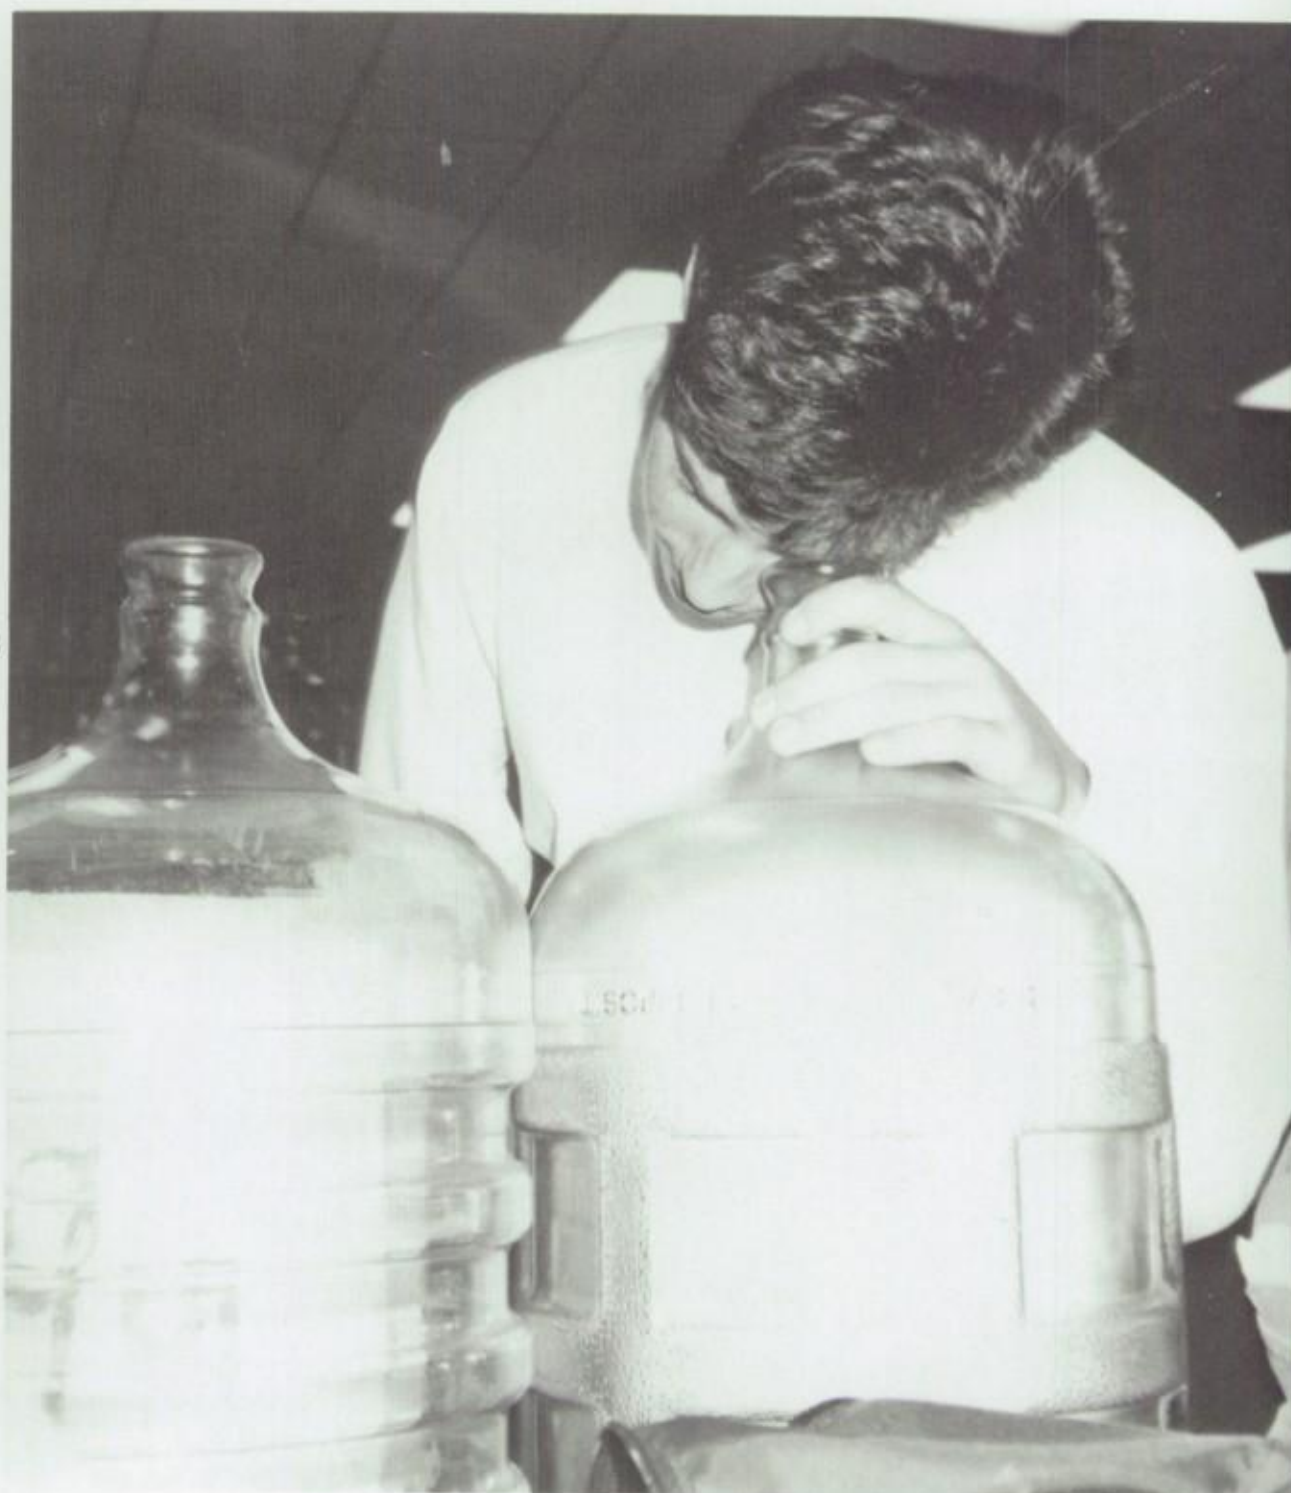

STUDENT COUNCIL WEEK

As any good cook will tell you, variety is important in any meal — and Student Council Week certainly offers that. Over the four days preceding Rummel Day, homerooms vie in such contests as the Six-Man Ski and the Football Bounce. Students get the opportunity to add their own ingredients to the Raider "stew" on Tacky Tie and Hat Day. Additionally, this year, Raiders^B had the opportunity to try to identify

RUMMEL DAY

Commemorating the feast of St. Joseph, Rummel's patron saint, the Raider community gathered in the gym for the annual celebration. SENIOR DAY

As their final few days as Raiders approached, the Senior class met with the rest of the student body to celebrate Senior Day. The festivities were marked by the music of the senior band and the Raider Jazz Band, and a slide-sound show highlighting the year. Several seniors were honored for the example they had set in overcoming obstacles on their roads to graduation, and the senior officers presented reflections on the class's past here at Rummel.

SCHEDULING

As the days of April began to "dwindle down to a precious few" and the end of the year loomed closer, Raiders' eyes turned briefly to August, as they prepared for the next year. With a day set aside for each class, the 9th, 10th, and 11th graders scheduled classes and teachers. Under the direction of Mr. Myles Seghers, the college-type process ran smoothly and everyone got a preview of coming attractions.

FATHER-SON MASS

In New Orleans one always associates the Feast of St. Joseph with "makin' groceries" in a literal sense, as thousands flock to altars laden with Italian cookies and pastries of all kinds. This year, the day took on a deeper significance at Rummel, as 500 Raiders and their fathers met in the gym to celebrate a Father-Son Mass. ART

One of the most active groups on campus is the Art Club. Moderated by Mr. Jerry Wagner and Mrs. Jana Jones, the Raider Rembrandts explored many diverse art forms, ranging from face painting to beautifying the school's trash-cans. Some of their activities included decorating the cafeteria windows for Christmas, planning a St. Joseph's Day altar, and staging several art shows throughout the year. Craig Rieger served as president.

Trying a recipe for the first time is a challenging experience, but it can also be a bit stressful. This new exposure to the Rummel "menu" is made a little more palatable for our incoming students by the Big Brothers. CHEERLEADERS

Each year the cheerleaders spice up pep rallies and stir the seething pot of support at athletic events. In addition, the squad, coached by Ms. Charlene Suter, enjoyed success in competition. At the UCA camp at Southeastern Louisiana College, the girl members won the pom-pon competition and the entire squad was voted Most-Spirited. To top things off, they won the cheering competition and received two Superior ribbons and four Outstanding ribbons. Erick Lewko and Kendra Culotta served as co-captains.

BAND

The Raider Band presented a decidedly different—and appealing—look this year, as ten young ladies from Chapelle were added to their number. This was the first step in the plan to open the organization to all Chapelle students next year.

As always, the year was a busy one, filled with successes. At the Loyola University Jazz Ensemble Festival, the Jazz Band received an Excellent rating in stage performance and a Superior in sight-reading.

In February, at the District VI Solo and Ensemble Festival, the individual competition merited twenty-four Superior ribbons, at the LMEA District VI Large Ensemble Festival in March.

The Marching Band received honors at the LMEA District VI Marching Band Festival, taking a Superior rating, while the color guard and percussion units received an Excellent.

When not competing, the musicians spread their considerable talents across a wide area of our community. During the hectic Mardi Gras season, the raiders performed in five parades and took second place in the Zeus Battle of the Bands. In addition, the ensemble entertained fellow Raiders at the Christmas and Spring Concerts and somehow found time to play for six area elementary schools. The Brass Ensemble was also asked to play at the Archdiocesan Combined School Mass.

Individual honors brightened the already gleaming reputation of the group. Johnny Stanford was named to the All-Symphonic Band. Named to the District VI Junior High Honor Concert Band were Frank Parker, Eddie Malara, and Matt Wood; to the District VI Senior High Honor Concert Band, Johnny Stanford, Dennis DeBruler, Chad Matthews, Michael Simmons, and Steve Petit; and to the Senior High Honor Jazz Band, Johnny Stanford, Jason Bergeron, Brian Plai-deau, Paul Wojdac, Dennis DeBruler, and Brandon Woodie.

ACADEMIC GAMES

The leading authorities here at Rummel on brain games can be found in the Academic Games team. Coached by Brother John LaRose, the cerebral athletes compete in four games: On-Sets, a theoretical math game; Propaganda, a language game focusing on persuasion; Equations, a game of numeric expressions; and Mr. President, a social studies competition on the American executives.

In local League play, the junior division captured first in On-Sets, second and fourth in Propaganda, second in Equations, and third and sixth in Mr. President. The senior division earned second and third in On-Sets, first in Propaganda, first and fourth in Equations, and third and sixth in Mr. President.

Individual honors on the junior level were brought home by David Vitrano, Robbie Portinari, Bryan Buttone, Frank Wharton, and Thomas Waguespack. On the senior level, individual kudos went to Ricky Goetz, David Reed, Jason Powers, and Anthony Debarbieris.

Emotions and intellects burned high, as the squad invaded Atlanta for the National Academic Olympics Tournament in April. The upperclassmen garnered first in On-Sets, second in Mr. President, second in Overall Math, third in Propaganda, and eighth in Equations. This performance earned them a second place overall standing. The junior team took first in On-Sets, second in Mr. President, third in Overall Math, fourth in Propaganda, and seventh in Equations, earning them a second place overall standing.

In individual competition, David Reed was national runner-up in Mr. President, and Troy Drewitz finished sixth. David Vitrano was national runner-up in On-Sets on the junior level.

The climax of the year, was the Louisiana State Mu Alpha Theta Convention, held in early March. Rummel fared very well, placing third in Senior Calculus Ciphering/Math Bowl, second in Senior Advanced Math, Ciphering/Math Bowl, and third in Junior Ciphering/Math Bowl. Rummel's On-Sets and Equations teams both captured first place, and the Chess Team was second only to Baton Rouge Magnet. The Genesian Players continued their tradition of high-quality productions as they presented three very different plays.

In September, the Players addressed the problems of drug addiction in the powerful A Hatful of Rain. Strong performances by David Lindbergh, Leon Contravespie, and Amy Costanza drove home the message of the devastating effects of narcotics.

Early December brought a lighter touch, with Neil Simon's Brighton Beach Memoirs. This hilarious comedy examines the problems of growing up and featured outstanding performances by Jim Rosato, Gretchen Grisbaum, and Paul Plaisance, among others.

The mood changed in the final production to mystery, as the actors kept audiences guessing in Agatha Christie's The Mousetrap. A variety of diverse characters in a British guest meet, and crime and red herrings abound. Among the talented cast were Matt McGuinness, David Lindbergh, and Ross Carroll.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

In the sixth year of Campus Ministry's existence, about sixty members under the guidance of Br. Louis Welker and Father Randy Roux contributed much to the Raider community. The group planned the morning prayers, organized the Thanksgiving food drive, and helped organize the gym Masses. In addition, they planned the Senior Ring Ceremony and visited many less-fortunate members of our community. As it has throughout its six year life, this group ^A served as an example of true Christianity to the Raider family.

KEY CLUB

Once again the Raider Key Club exemplified Rummel's spirit by helping its community in a multitude of ways. Besides continuing their weekly visits to Children's Hospital and the New Orleans Home for the Elderly, the members also expanded their social horizons to include other activities. Giving generously of their time, members assisted at Rummel Dances, Open House, school Masses, scheduling, and Graduation. They also sponsored two successful blood drives.

Under moderators Br. Leo Harvey and Mr. Frank Formusa, the club played its usual important role in "building home, school, and community."

Seeing the smiles on the faces of the grandparents we adopted makes it all worthwhile.

NEWSPAPER

Members of the Journalism class published four issues of the Raiders' Digest, the popular school newspaper. Staff members decided on stories to be covered, conducted the necessary interviews, wrote copy, and planned the layouts. The annual field trip to the New Orleans Times-Picayune exposed the staff to a professional paper's environment. Mr. Joe Serio taught and moderated the group; Matt McGuinness was Editor-in-Chief, Matt Suffern, Associate Editor, Mark Bryan, Feature Editor, Rex Gossett, News Editor, and Mark Wright, Sports Editor.

CAFETERIA

One aspect of "makin' Raiders" literally involves "makin' groceries" — lunch. Under the direction of first year cafeteria manager Mrs. Velma Dupuy, a well-trained staff prepares a variety of delicious meals to sate the appetites of ravenous Raiders during the three lunch periods. There are always three or four entrees and a salad to select from. Occasionally, a surprise "theme" day occurs. Costumed staff members and appropriate decorations liven the Raider eatin' place quite a bit on these days.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

There's a highly competitive world of business out there, and each year many Raiders have the chance to learn a little about it first hand through Junior Achievement. Future business leaders, under the guidance of talented local businessmen, form corporations, issue stock, manufacture and market products, and share in the profits. The eighteen week journey into the ins-and-outs of capitalism give Raiders a taste of things to come.

State Champions? Besides this remarkable achievement at the state level, the Council again offered the student body many varied activities. GENESIAN PLAYERS 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Hundreds of actors under one roof, and no one tried to upstage anyone else. The mood for the night was just reminiscing and updating as the Genesian Players celebrated their 25th Anniversary with a Gala in the gym. Former members appeared in scenes and musical numbers from plays in which they participated in the past.

Organized by twenty-five year Moderator Mr. Chuck Guajardo and Mr. Bob Roso, the evening also included a video-tape presentation painstakingly researched by Mr. Roso who went through twenty-five years of negatives and yearbook pictures to select those to be included in the tape. Ex-Genesian Jim Pratt of Tele-Focus Productions did a marvelous job of bringing the pictures to life. This nostalgic experience brought both tears and smiles to the faces of the audience. CROSS COUNTRY

It was a mildly satisfying year for the Cross Country team; unfortunately for the distance runners, there were no high team honors. Led by their captain, junior Jay Duhe, the varsity squad finished fourth in the city and fifth in district standings.

On an individual basis, Jay Duhe placed tenth in the city, ninth in district, and fifty-first in state competition. Other outstanding performances were delivered by seniors Ross Carroll and Brian Tessitore, junior Gary Breau, sophomore Chris Rooney, and freshmen Mike Savoie and Ken Couvillion.

Coach Ronnie Doyle is looking forward to a brighter future; an optimism prompted by the first place finish in district competition by the junior high team.

FOOTBALL

The Raider football team has known happier seasons than the one they experienced in 1987, as the young squad, short on returnees, faced tough and seasoned opponents on their way to a 4 - 6 record.

In the Christian Brothers Jamboree, after Sean Francioni's five yard run had placed the score at 6 - 7, the Raiders bravely opted to try for the two point conversion and the win. Sadly, quarterback Brad Burckel was stopped a yard shy, and Abramson hung on for the win.

Pre-season play began a week later against Ponchatoula. The Green Wave scored twice in the first half to take the lead, but failed both conversions, leaving the field for the break with a 12-point advantage. In the second half, the defense stopped the Wave cold, but the Raiders were able to put only seven points on the board, a 17-yard strike from Burckel to wide receiver Jay Viosca; Jeff Viosca added the PAT. It was a disappointing beginning, but a faint light began to shine at the end of the tunnel over the next three weeks.

The squad travelled to Houma the following week to meet South Terrebonne. As the defense stymied the Gators' for most of the game, Burckel tossed a 32-yarder to Jay Viosca and hit Eric Rice for a 17-yard score which, with Jeff Viosca's extra point, gave them a 13 - 7 victory. The lion's share of the credit goes to the defense, however, as Earl Kilbride picked off two S.T. aerals, and Travis Carter and Trey Stephens each stole one.

The Raiders upped their record to 2 - 1 the next week, demolishing Hammond 29 - 0. With no score in the first quarter, the Tornadoes gave up possession at their 27 with a muffed punt, and four plays later Cornelius Dupard rambled nine yards for the first TD. Later scores were tallied by Jay Viosca, Paul Heath, and Randy Matherne, who recovered a Tornado fumble in their endzone. Jeff Viosca booted three PATs, and the squad rolled up 317 yards of offense to 77 for their opponents.

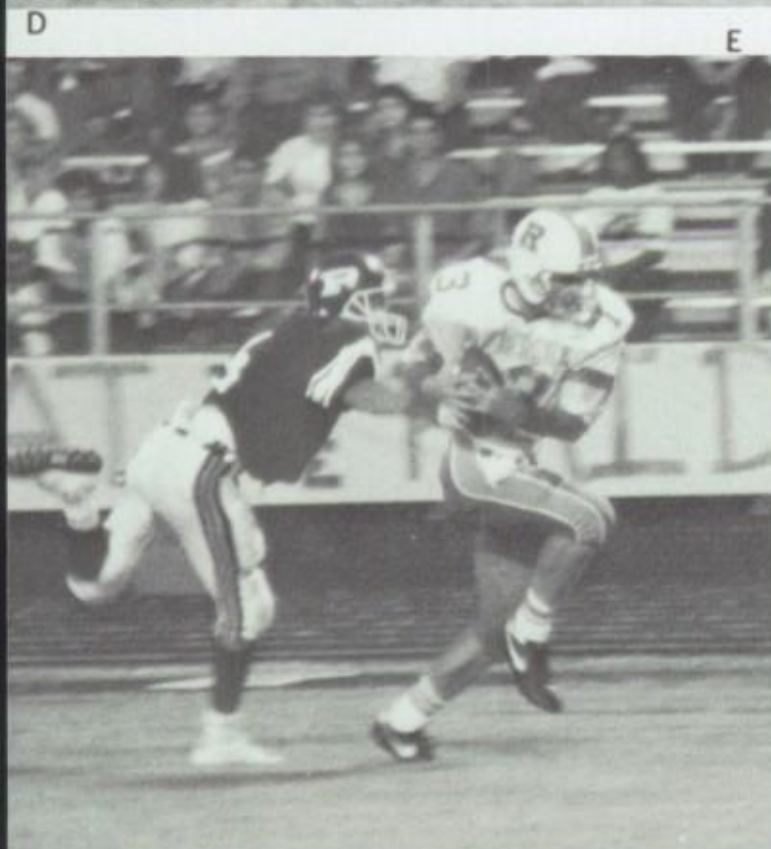

Seven days later in the first district game, the squad met DeLaSalle at Joe Yenni Stadium and came away with another victory, 10 - 7. Jeff Viosca started the scoring with a 36-yard fieldgoal, and set up the lone Raider TD with a 41-yard reception from Burckel that put us at the Cav's one yard line. Stephen Rivera plunged in A for the score and Viosca tacked on the tenth point. A blocked punt set up De-LaSalle's lone score, but the Cav's hopes for a last minute win were dashed as Rick Ely intercepted a Cavalier pass at the Raider ten. Rivera led the team with 38 of their 160 rushing yards, and the defense intercepted two and held the Cav's to 125 total yards. The Raiders had captured three in a row, but that light at the end of the tunnel began to flicker out the next week.

October brought the second district game against Holy Cross, and Burckel passed the Raiders to a 20 - 14 lead. But the hammer fell in the second half, as the Tigers roared back for two scores to go ahead. The Raiders almost pulled it out when the arm of Burckel moved them to the HC four, but the cats courageously held with less than a minute left to secure their win.

Next week it was Jesuit and disaster. After forcing the Blue Jays to settle for a field goal early in the game, the Raiders collapsed under an awesome Blue-and-White passing and rushing combination which left them on the short end of a 31 - 0 score.

Reeling from this staggering loss, the team next faced Archbishop Shaw. The Eagles used their vaunted running game to roll up most of its 314 yards, while the Raiders were able to generate only 160. The only bright spots in the 24 - 10 loss were a fumble recovery by Alan Abboud which set up a 10-yard run by Burckel, and a 26-yard three-pointer by Jeff Viosca.

The outcome of the following week's game against St. Augustine was no better, the Raiders dropping it 35 - 6. Although our defense blunted the Purple Knights for half of the game, St. Aug's powerful offense got on track in the third quarter and little could be done to stop them. Rummel's sole score capped a 95-yard second period drive highlighted by a 30-yard Darren Langlois to Jay Viosca toss. Stephen Rivera bulled his way in from the one.

It was too late now for the Raiders to salvage any district honors, but that didn't dissuade them from adding one more victory to their record, blowing out Chalmette the next week, 23 - 0. The Raider defense completely pulled the plug on the Owl offense, while the offense cranked out more touchdowns than they had in the previous three games combined. Brad Burckel reversed roles with running back Paul Heath, taking a pitchout from the halfback and dashing 23 yards for the first score. Sean Francioni added a second on a 2-yard dive which capped a drive highlighted by Earl Kilbride's 25-yard punt return. Burckel passed to Viosca for the final score.

The final game of the season was against Brother Martin, who squeaked past Rummel 6 - 0. Neither offense could produce much yardage, but the Crusaders managed an impressive 99-yard drive at the end of the first half to score the only points. The Raiders final chance, with less than a minute left, was thwarted when Burckel's endzone pass was intercepted.

Individually, three Raiders' fine play merited post-season honors. Jay Viosca and Matt McGuinness made honorable mention on the All-East-Bank Team. Kevin Koster was named to the All-East-Bank Team, the WWL All-District squad, and the Times-Picayune All-District team. Earl Kilbride was named to the All-East-Bank team, the WWL All-District team, the Times-Picayune All-District team and All-Metro team, the All-State Academic squad, and was an All-State honorable mention.

POWER LIFTING

"No pain, no gain!" Some Raiders learned the meaning of this expression first hand as they spent their off hours pumping iron and representing Rummel in power lifting competition. Captain Ryan Main, Johnny Rouse, and Joey Rivera participated in the Brother Martin meet and both Rouse and Rivera qualified for State competition. Ex-Raider strongman Sean Augustine coached the lifters.

SWIMMING

It's not just the hours you put in, but what you put into the hours that counts." With this motto in mind, the Raider Swim Team, coached by Mrs. Annette McDonald, stroked their way to a good season. In the City Relay Meet, the 200-yard breaststroke relay team captured first place, and Rummel copped fifth place overall. After taking third place in the Greater New Orleans High School Swim League, and fifth in the City Championship Meet, the watermen finished local competition with a second place in the Vanderbilt Invitational.

Ten members qualified for the State Championship Meet: Bryan Woodward, Scott Rigby, John Eble, Mark Brubacher, Jay Chedotal, Billy Derenbecker, Geoff Douville, Glenn Welch, Kevin Barrios, and George Rucker. Welch captured 7th place in the 50-yard freestyle, and Rucker did the same in the 500-yard freestyle. The 400-yard freestyle relay team of Welch, Barrios, Rucker, and Douville splashed to a 5th place finish, and the team earned an overall standing of 9th.

Team captain Alvin Royes led the squad with an impressive average of 159, followed closely by Sean Bradford with a 157.

BASKETBALL

It was one of those years when nothing seems to go right. The '87-'88 Raider basketball season was a story of oh, so close and yet so far away. Many important games were decided by fewer than three points; unfortunately, the Raiders came out on the short end more often than not.

The squad opened the season brightly, with consecutive victories over Slidell, East Jefferson, and L.B. Landry. In the C.Y.O. Tournament, the Raiders downed East Jefferson again, but then lost to Cohen and De-LaSalle.

After regrouping, the Raiders captured fourth place at the Newman Tournament, taking crucial wins over McDonough and Fortier.

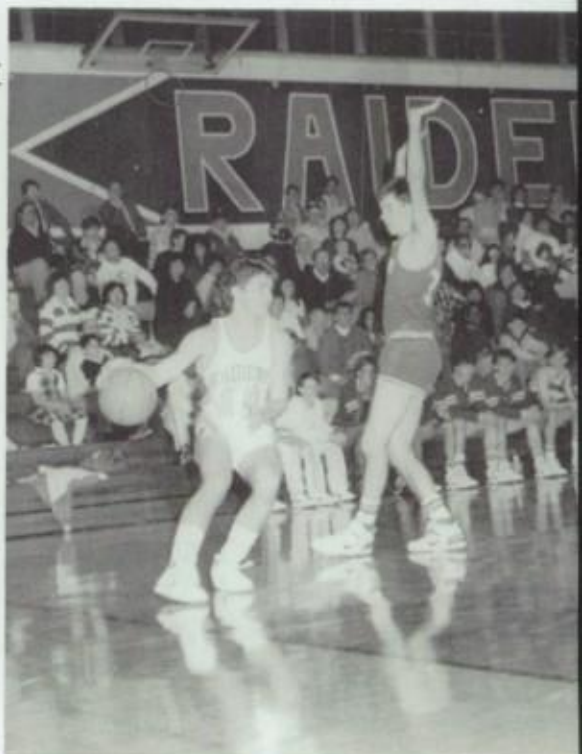

The courtmen then mixed round-ball with fun in the sun as they flew to Hawaii for the Iolani Prep Classic. They opened with a five-point victory over St. Louis of Hawaii, but the next day were handed a 35 - 69 loss by St. Anthony's of New Jersey, a team ranked second in the nation.

District play was disastrous, with the Raiders failing to win a single game, ending the season with their worst record in history. A talented team had simply failed to "put it together" at critical moments.

In post-season honors, center Patrick O'Brian was named to the Times-Picayune All-East Bank Team and earned honorable mention on the paper's All-11 AAAA District Team. Pat had also been named to the All-Tournament Team in the Newman Tournament.

It was a long season and it was hard, but, the coaches never gave up on us and we never gave up on ourselves.

WRESTLING

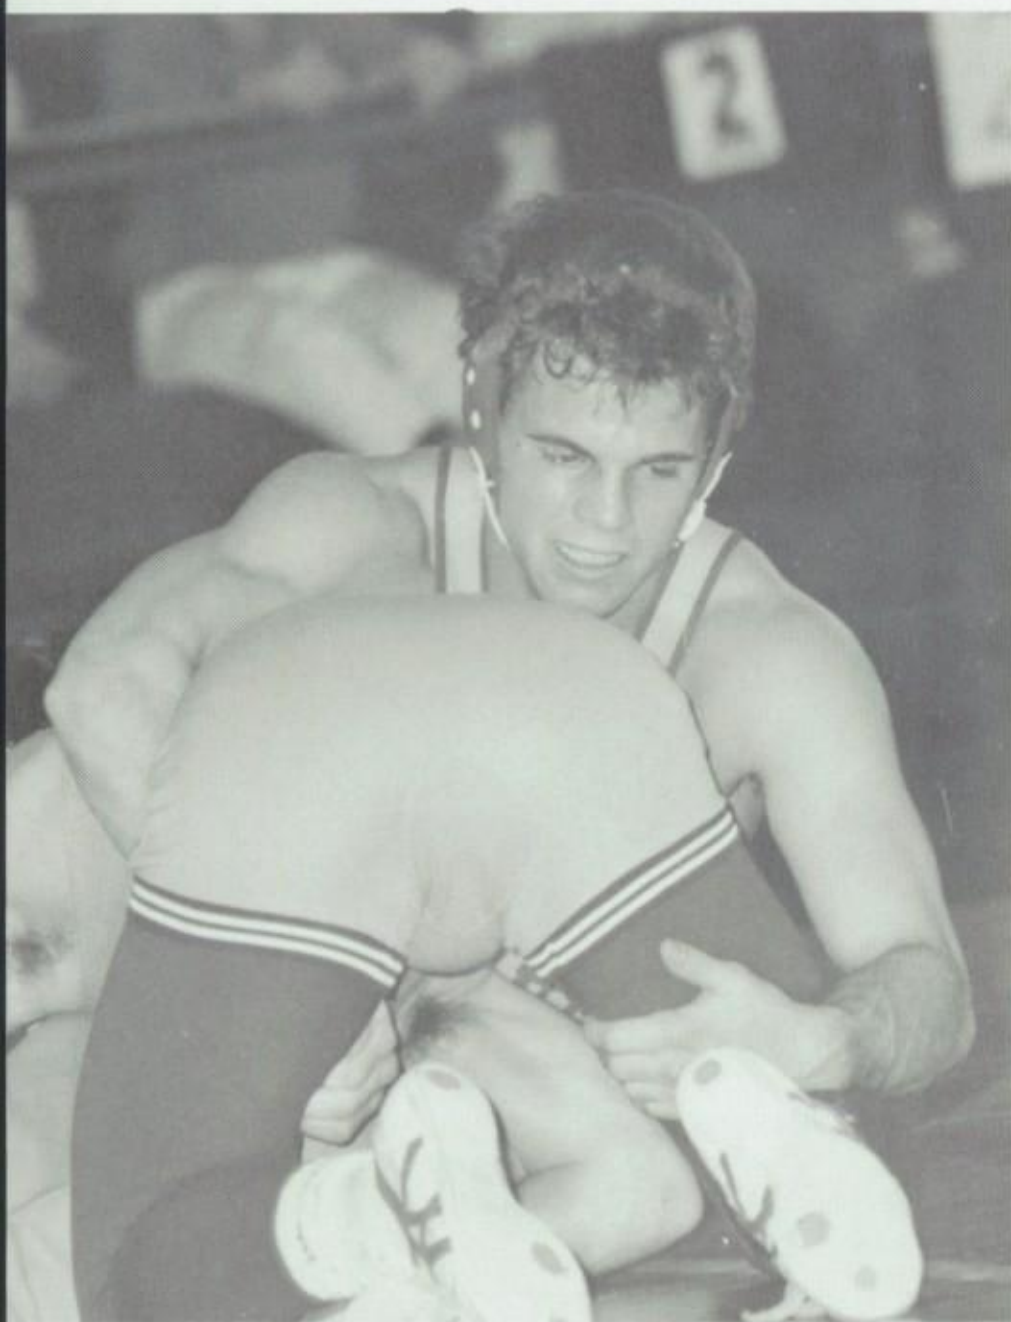

The Raider Wrestling Team enjoyed a successful year under Coach Craig Dornan and moderator Mr. Frank Ferrera. In dual meet competition the matsmen ended with an 8 - 6 record, scoring their most impressive victories against St. Paul (57-18) and Riverdale (55-15).

In Tournament competition the grapplers also did well, finishing 7th out of 21 teams in the Catholic Invitational and 5th out of 35 in the Lafayette Invitational. The squad finished 4th in both District and regionals, sending seven individual qualifiers to State. There the Raiders finished 12th out of 37 schools.

On an individual basis there were many standouts. Captain Chris Crump (119 lbs.) went 35-9, was the Catholic Invitational champ, finished 2nd in District and Regionals and 3rd in State. David Marley (138 lbs.) was Regional champ and State qualifier. Craig Vicknair (132 lbs.) was 1st in Lafayette and a State qualifier. David Della Valentina (167 lbs.) was District champ and finished 3rd in State.

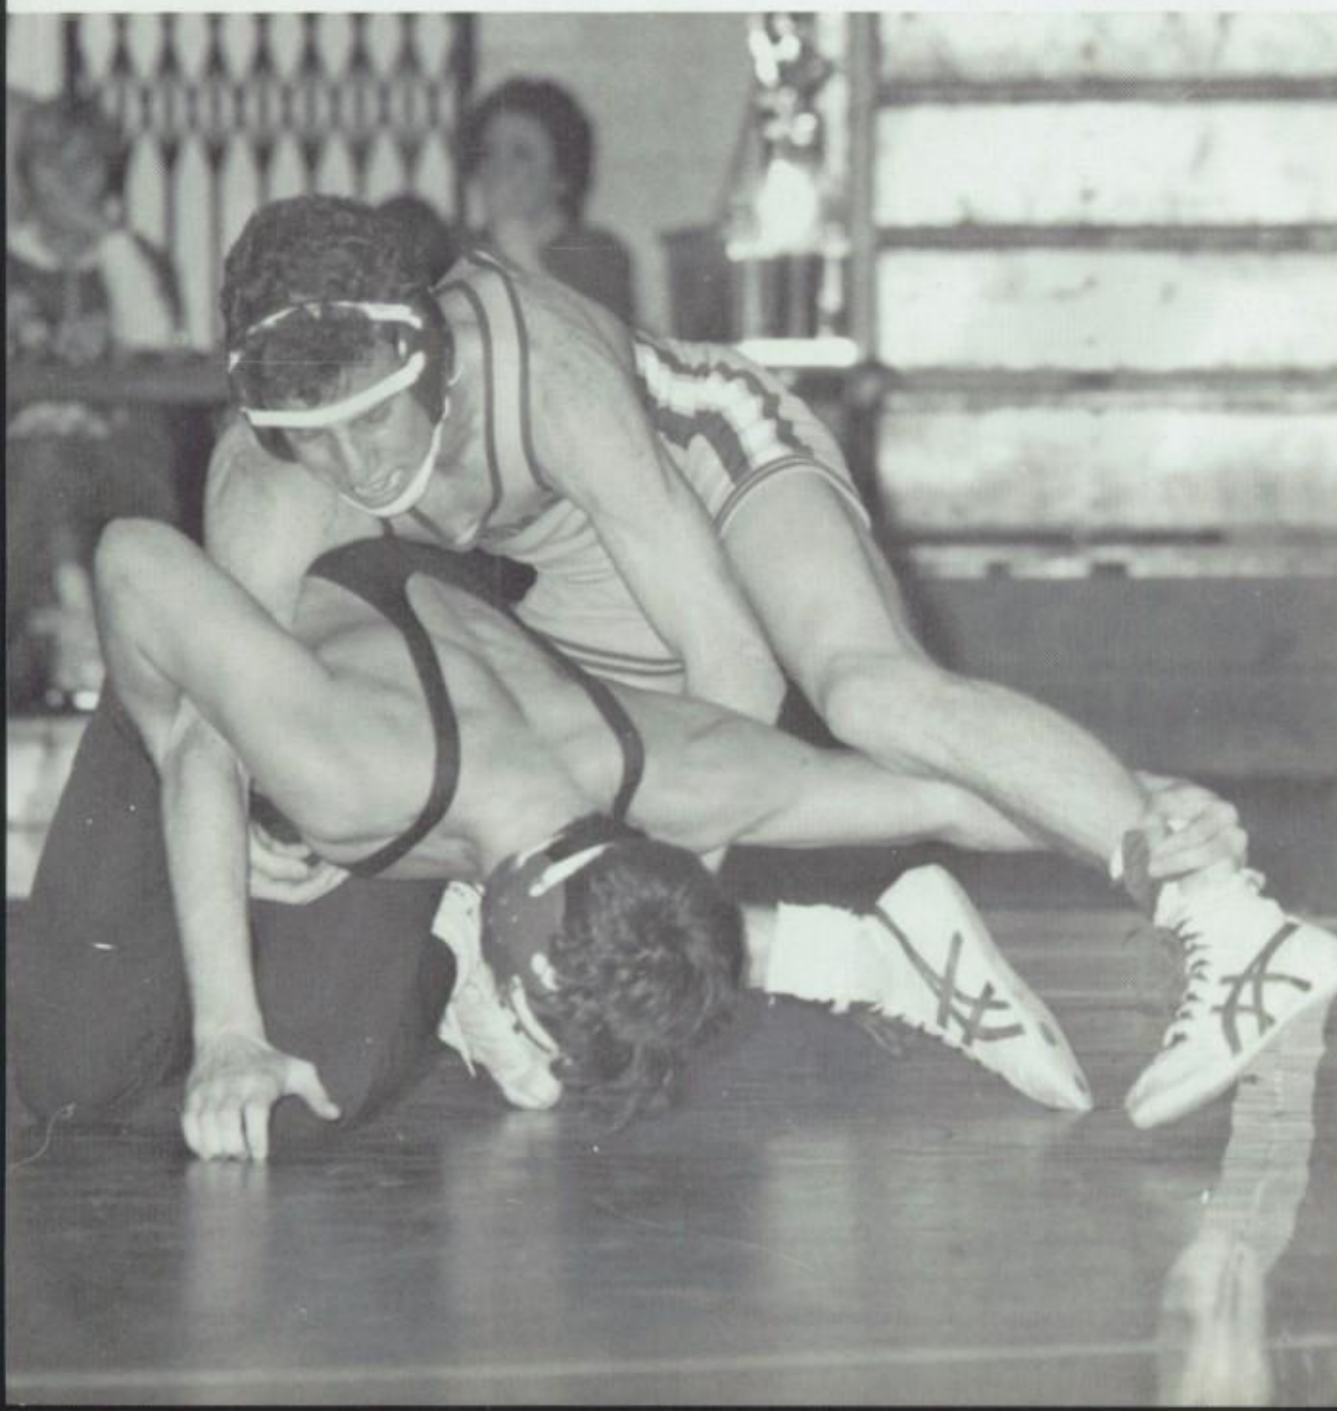

Mike Pizzolato (105 lbs.) and Wayne St. John (112 lbs.) both took 2nd in Regionals, qualifying for State. Scott Veitinger (119 lbs.) was Regional runner-up and 6th in State, and Paul Riley (132 lbs.) finished 2nd in District.

Coached by Mr. Lee Lanoux, the Raider Golf team began its first round of play in October. The young players got off to a slow start, ending the first set of matches with a record of 2-4. After concentrating on hard practice, the golfers were in full swing as the second round began, and delivered a mirror image of the first, ending with a 4-2 match record. Jason Renton deserves special praise, having led the team in every match of the second round.

BASEBALL

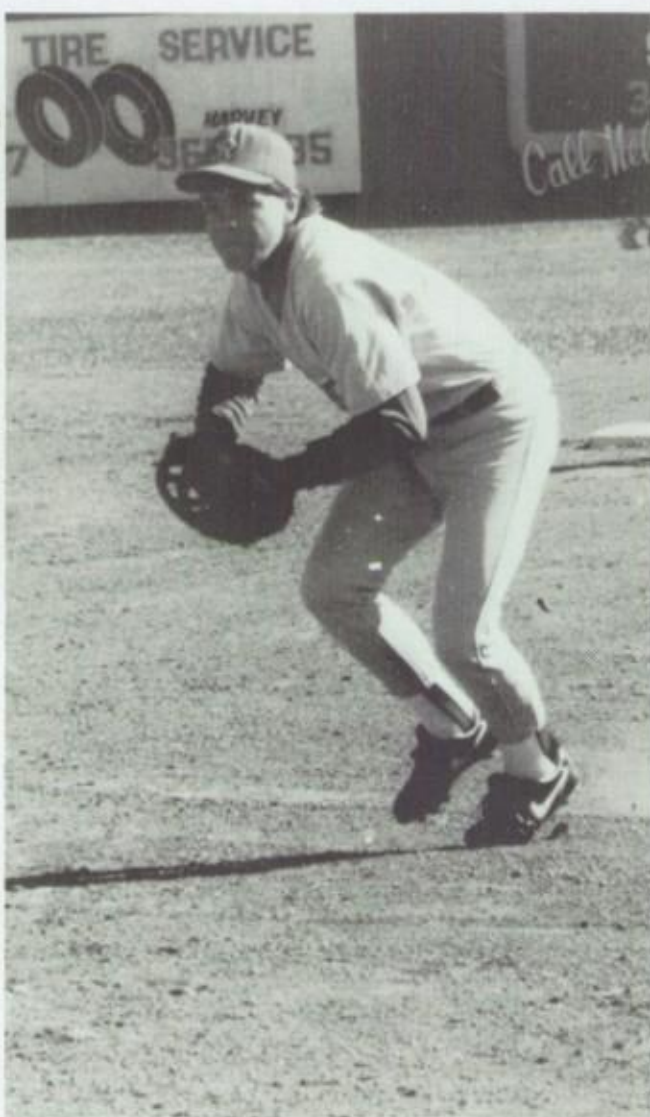

The Raider Baseball Team had high hopes of successfully defending its State Championship title, but "the best laid plans" often do go awry.

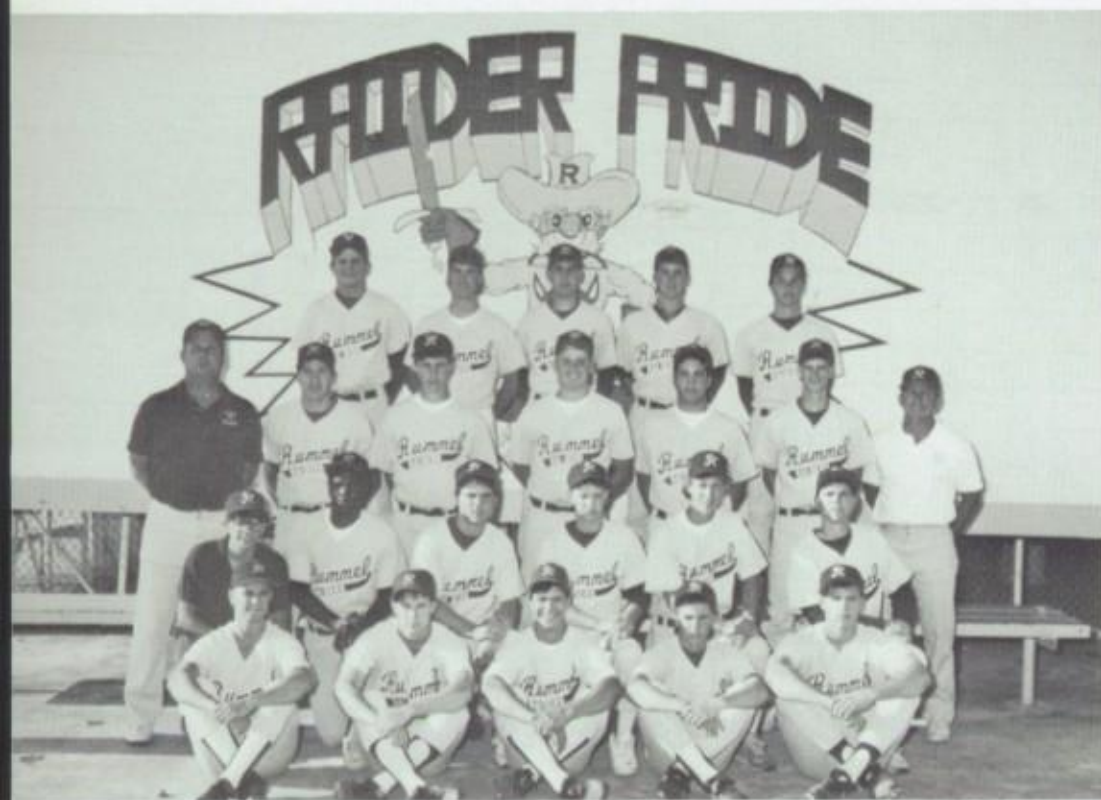

The season began brightly enough, with a win over East Jefferson, a victory at the Pensacola Tournament, an impressive showing at the Hammond Tournament, and victories against Amite and Mandeville.

The first round of regular season A play began with a close defeat at the hands of Jesuit, which was followed by triumphs over Snaw, Chalmette, Brother Martin, and St. Augustine. After losing to DeLaSalle, the Raiders knocked off Holy Cross to finish in second place and still within striking distance of the ultimate victory.

Defensive errors and poor hitting contributed to losses to Jesuit and Shaw as the second round got under way. The Raider nine bounced back, led by Brad Burckel's hot bat and Glenn Ruppert's three-hit pitching, to take out Chalmette, but the cloud of defeat loomed just ahead, as the team dropped one to Brother Martin. The basemen see-sawed through the rest of the second round, beating St. Aug, losing to DeLaSalle, and topping Holy Cross in the final game.

Although ending with an impressive 15-7 record, the squad was unable to make the playoffs and recapture their State crown. As Coach Larry Schneider said: "We played well all year. Critical mistakes at the wrong times and batting slumps just caught up with us."

FACULTY GOLF

For the fourth time, faculty golfers took advantage of the holiday after Open House to hit the fairways and demonstrate their sizzling drives and bullseye putts — or whatever. The growing event, organized by Coach Ronnie Doyle and Mr. Bobby Ohler, featured sweatshirts and refreshments for all, and a multitude of post-tourney trophies for accomplishments big and small. This year, the foursomes thrashed their way around Pretty Acres Golf Course in Mandeville.

RAIDER ALBUM

Another deep thinker !!

1... you put your left foot in; 6-7
1 you put your left foot out...

A-H-H! Another wonderful meal in the Raider
 Cafe...

A little

*...and tomorrow we will learn how to tuck in

A typical Student Council meeting

*...and if you behave
again Tomorrow-w-w!*

See no evil,
Read no evil,
Smell no evil

...And if you mis-count
again, I'll...

Fr. Randy to me to
